WIFE - Elizabeth Russell

NOTE: I HAVE LISTED BIRTHPLACE FOR ELIZABETH AS IRELAND, BASED ON A HANDWRITTEN DOCUMENT BY ELIZABETH'S LIKELY BROTHER WILLIAM RUSSELL'S GRANDSON, WILLIAM RUSSELL HATCHETT, ON 1 SEP 1840 THAT WILLIAM RUSSELL WAS VERY YOUNG WHEN HE CAME FROM IRELAND TO VIRGINIA. See: <<http://www.hatchetts.com/hatchett/documents/manus-wmrhatchett.html>>

She appears to be a sister of Hannah Rudd, according to the following: 12 Aug 1737, Amelia Co., Virginia: Anne RUSSELL, William RUSSELL, Hannah RUDD, Elizabeth STORY, and John STORY made oath they had no allowance for persons imported to the colony of Virginia -- Amelia Co. Hannah RUDD was grandmother of Simcock CANNON (who had a son named Russell CANNON). Court Order Book 1, Amelia Co., VA, 1735-1746 by Gibson J. McConnaughey, (Amelia, Virginia: Mid South Publishing Co., 1985), 94.

22 Nov 1740, Amelia Co.: Elizabeth RUSSELL was paid for cleaning the courthouse.

An Edward Story/Storey, born 9 Oct 1756 in Chesterfield Co., Virginia; d 7 Aug 1837, Campbell Co., Virginia; married Joicy Sampson Bates on 6 Aug 1775 and served in the Revolutionary War. This appears to be the same Edward Storey named in Hannah Rudd's will as her nephew. The Revolutionary War soldier lived on Wintopock Creek, where John and Elizabeth Storey may have lived.
